Dear Donation Committee at Southwest Chase:

I am proud and honored to say that I have been crowned Mrs. New Mexico Globe 2011. I will represent the state of New Mexico at the national Ms. U.S. pageant in Rancho Mirage, California, from August 23 to August 28, 2010.

In order for me to get to the national pageant, however, I must raise $1,800 for our charity—called the Women In Need (WIN) Foundation. The WIN Foundation is a private, non-profit foundation that specializes in rehabilitating women who are survivors of domestic violence by providing them with counseling services, empowerment classes, job interview skills, and education on the effects of abuse. WIN believes that by healing the woman, you heal the family, and that the final destination of healing is love and passion of life purpose. I am especially interested in this charity because New Mexico has such a high rate of domestic abuse—so much so, that Governor Richardson has spoken about mental health, substance abuse, and domestic violence in his campaign efforts.

All the funds from your donation will go directly to the WIN Foundation. Checks can be made payable to WIN and sent directly to the foundation at: WIN Foundation, 1718 Newport Hills Drive West, Newport Beach, CA 92660. The WIN Foundation is a 501(c)(3) tax exempt donation. In the memo portion of the check, please put “Erin Bailey, Mrs. New Mexico.”

I am asking for your monetary support to help the efforts of the WIN Foundation continue to help women who are survivors of domestic violence.

I look forward to hearing from you!

Sincerely,

Erin Bailey
